

ENFORCEMENT PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Marvin Richardson, Assistant Director
Curtis Gilbert, Deputy Assistant Director

FIREARMS & EXPLOSIVES INDUSTRY DIVISION

Michael Fronczak, Chief
(202) 648-7090

EXPLOSIVES INDUSTRY PROGRAMS BRANCH

Paul Brown, Chief
(202) 648-7120

- Develops and provides guidance to ATF field operations on implementation and enforcement of the explosives regulations and programs.
- Responsible for explosives newsletters, rulemakings, rulings, variances, regulation determinations, explosive classifications, and exemptions.
- Liaisons with explosive industry associations and members via email, phone, industry seminars, training presentations for industry symposiums, & workshops.
- Primary point of contact for government agencies requiring assistance in explosive matters.
- Coordinates with Explosives Research and Development on technical issues including research, evaluation and testing of explosives products.

FIREARMS INDUSTRY PROGRAMS BRANCH

Vacant, Chief
(202) 648-7190

- Provides program oversight, support, and guidance in areas relevant to the regulation of the firearms industry to include technical and policy support to ATF.
- Designs, implements and assesses programs which will protect the public, reduce violent crimes, and prevent terrorism involving firearms.
- Responsible for firearms Newsletter, State Laws and Published Ordinances Guide, and Firearms Regulation Guide; ATF Form 4473 (English and Spanish versions); determinations and clarifications of firearms regulations from industry members, field personnel, Congress and other government agencies.
- Manages firearms program by initiating and developing regulatory changes through rulemaking.